Principals Report

Festival of Instrumental Music

A night of nights was held on Monday evening at the Sydney Opera showcasing the talents of 200 strings (on stage), over 700 recorder players (behind and at the sides), including Bellevue Hill students and numerous ensembles and bands from public schools across the State in the combined Festival of Instrumental Music. This was the first of four concerts this week .

Dance Opportunity

Aaliyah P in Year 5 has been given an amazing opportunity to dance in New York. At the end of last year Aaliyah participated in a dance workshop hosted by Liberate Artists. Liberate Artists is an American based company which gives children around the world an opportunity to do what they love.

Aaliyah was fortunate to receive a scholarship to dance in New York. She will attend a 7 day intense workshop where she will meet and get choreographed by world renowned choreographers and dancers from So You Think You Can Dance America. She also gets the opportunity to see a Broadway show Wicked. At the end of the week along with all the other dancers Aaliyah will perform for a one night concert.

Deadly Kids Awards ceremony

The Deadly Kids Awards celebrate the outstanding achievements of Aboriginal students across primary and high schools in our Metropolitan South Operational Directorate. Congratulations to Aaron H in Year 5 who received this award today for his continued academic progress at school.

Congratulations also to Laura Coleman who has been awarded a Gamarada Award, a new award recognising outstanding non-Aboriginal staff in our schools. The word Gamarada is a Sydney language word for friend or comrade. Recipients are selected for their outstanding contributions to Aboriginal Education in their local school community.

P&C Meeting 5 Aug

You Can Do It!

There were meters and meters of beautiful unrolled fabric left from the Art shows and musicals...Rachelle, Bella, Clair, Eden and Lizzy from Year 6 took the challenge to tidy the fabric. "It appeared an extremely fun job after all," said the girls.

They started rolling really long bright fabric in the 2nd week of Term 2 and finished in week 5. All fabric was at least 10 meters long.

At the end the girls said that they hit all of the YCDI keys and this is how:

"We were extremely persistent and did not give up even if it was hard."

"We were positive and happy even at times when we were tired."

"We were resilient because when it did not work we tried again and again to roll the fabric neatly."

"We were confident because we believed that we could do this task."

"We were organised because we were working during recesses and lunches and never were late to the lines after it." And, "We were getting along because we were helping each other."

"It was also about sustainability," added Dr Petrova.

Music

On Monday 29 July, selected recorder and strings students were given the opportunity to partake in the annual Festival of Instrumental Music Concert at the Sydney Opera House. Developed by the Arts Unit, students from around Sydney came together on Monday to perform a variety of pieces, which they had been practicing all year. Open to public schools around NSW, over 700 students attended with over 30 schools involved in the Acacia concert. Bellevue Hill Public School had a record 20 students performing. We are very proud of their achievements and congratulate the following students who were involved: from Year 6: Shavav; Year 5: Bayla, Amy, Honey, Shiri, Max, Josh, Yoshi, Liav, Ori, Aaron; Year 4: Tiffany, Elizabeth, Year 3: Maya, Danielle, Leah, Ashley, Kayla, Jenny, Iga.

We look forward to next year's performance at the Town Hall!
